

Ronald Cheung

Grew up in Canada, collaborative pianist Ronald Cheung enjoys a versatile career as répétiteur, vocal coach, chamber musician, and conductor. He was the répétiteur for Anna Netrebko Asian Tour in collaboration with Hong Kong Arts Festival. He was a scholarship recipient for Songfest 2012 in Los Angeles, attended masterclasses and coaching sessions by Margo Garrett, Martin Katz, and Graham Johnson. He spent two consecutive years working with diction legend Nico Castel at Opera NUOVA at the University of Alberta in Edmonton, Canada, along with other coaches and singers from the Metropolitan Opera and Canadian Opera Company.

Ronald has been the artistic director for the Show Choir and Handbells Ensemble at Shantou University since 2016. He is associate supervisor at Yip's Children's choir, part-time faculty at the Hong Kong Academy for Performing Arts, freelance keyboard player at Hong Kong Philharmonic Orchestra, répétiteur for Opera Hong Kong and Musica Viva, and conductor for choirs at St. Joseph Primary School. Ronald founded DictionLab in 2014 to provide courses and awareness in lyric diction and art songs, and has successfully held performances and masterclasses locally and abroad. He has worked with distinguished conductors including Edo de Waart, Lorin Maazel, Yves Abel, David Stern, and Jaap von Zweden.
